

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to ask that you please not relax the FCC's current restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

Permitting the use of cell phones on commercial airliners would dramatically increase the level of tension and frustration among passengers, compromise flight attendants' ability to maintain order, and put everyone on board at greater risk. As someone who travels frequently and uses a cell phone for work, I am convinced that such a move would be unpleasant, at best; dangerous, at worst; and in any case, completely unnecessary.

Please do not ease the restrictions.

Sincerely,

Sharon Randall
